Diocese of Liverpool

Date: Tuesday 24 April 2018

Timings: refreshments at 17:00, lecture at 17:30 with a 19:00 finish.

Venue: Radisson Blu Hotel, The Headrow, Leeds, LS1 8TL

Hosts: Wrigleys Solicitors LLP

The lecture, the first in the ELS Northern Province Lecture series 2018, is hosted by Wrigleys Solicitors LLP.

Sir Mark Hedley, the Deputy President of the Clergy Discipline Tribunal will be speaking about the Clergy Discipline Measure 2003 and providing an overview of some of its key aspects.

The Clergy Discipline Measure provides processes for dealing efficiently and fairly with formal complaints of serious misconduct against members of the clergy. It applies to all deacons, priests and bishops in the Church of England, even if they are not in active ministry.

Topics covered by the lecture will include:

- Threshold under the Measure
- The route of a complaint under the Measure
- Appeals and reviews
- Vulnerable adults
- Abuse of power / authority.

In addition to being a High Court judge until his retirement in 2013, Sir Mark has been a Reader for over 40 years and Chancellor of the Diocese of Liverpool since 2002.

The lecture is free of charge but spaces are limited and prior booking is essential. To book please click here or visit <https://ecclawsoc.org.uk/events/cdm/>.
