

You couldn't make it up! Good Governance in Parochial Ministry

The ELS presents a series of regional day conferences looking at the challenges and importance of good governance in parochial ministry. These days are open to anyone who is involved in leading or assuring governance and management of life in our parishes – clergy, churchwardens, PCC secretaries, registrars, diocesan staff and trainers etc

15th November 2019: Minerva House,
5 Montague Close, London SE1 9DF

22nd November 2019: The Queens Foundation Birmingham
Somerset Road, Edgbaston Birmingham, B15 2QH

Dates to be advised: Bristol and Leeds in Spring 2020

10.30am to 3.30pm

*Cost £25.00 for ELS members: £30.00 for non-members
Lunch included*

Booking and information: <https://ecclawsoc.org.uk/education/>

Led by members of the ELS Education Team including:

Simon Baker, Chair of ELS Education
Norman Boakes, former Archdeacons National Executive Officer
Andrea Russell, Queen's Foundation, Birmingham)
Louise Connacher, Acting Provincial Registrar
Stuart Beake, former Archdeacon of Surrey
Stephen Borton, Ecclesiastical Manager Lee Bolton Monier-Williams
Teresa Sutton, Sussex University

A range of topics will be considered including:

Good order as a fundamental part of our vocation
The Church Representation Rules including recent changes
PCC members as charity trustees

So that our conversation is relevant to the needs of participants, each day conference will conclude with a panel review of questions and issues. You are invited to send your questions to Simon Baker at simonbaker57@outlook.com indicating which conference you will be attending.